SUBJECT No. 47.

Stamp duty on property sold to mortgagee.

Messrs. Kotturiah and Singri Nanjappa, Tiptur taluk.

Summary of discussion.—In connection with sale deeds of mortgaged property, the Registration and Stamp Acts provide for the computation of the stamp duty, etc., on the excess amount paid at the time of conveyance over the previous mortgaged amount, on obtaining the District Registrar's permission therefor. This arrangement entails a good lot of inconvenience to parties. It is, therefore, requested that Government may empower Sub-Registrars to accord the required sanction in such cases, as in the British Territories.

Reply of Government.—Will be noted and considered.

This has to be dealt with in Pr II S.R. Section. This may, if approved, be transferred to that section

SUBJECT No. 32.

Stamp duty on property sold to mortgagee.

Mr. Singri Nanjappa, Tiptur taluk.

Summary of discussion.—As in British territories, the Sub-Registrars may be authorized to grant permission to sell the mortgaged property to the mortgagee on the previous stamp fee paid instead of the District Registrar and the inconvenience now caused be removed.

(6) It was stated that this practice was already in vogue in some places, such as Chikmagalur, T.-Narasipur and Koppa.

Please see enclosed file.

"There is no departmental objection to comply with this prayer and it may be met by the Govt investing the Sub-Registrar with the powers of a Dy Coll under Section 16 of the Stamp Regulation."

It is not clear if it is necessary to cancel the Dy. of Registrar the Stamp Coll in the matter now.

(11) In the Madras Govt notification no. 511 Dy 20.11.1899 all registering officers were appointed to be collectors in respect of the powers conferred under Sec 16 of the Stamp Act

15) This file has all along been linked with S.R 107-14 re the question of appointing Sub. Regr as Dy Coll for purposes of Sec. 18 of the Stamp Regulation. In that file the first Member has expressed the opinion that he does not like the idea of appointing Sub-Registrars to be Dy Coll for any purpose, and under his orders a draft appointing Asst Coll in charge of Subdivisions & Amildars & ~~Deputy Collectors~~ as Dy Coll in respect of the powers under Sec 18, is put up.

16) This ~~passed~~ file relates to a proposal to invest Sub-Regrs with powers of Dy Coll under Section 16, and a draft was put up sometime ago, on the lines of the Madras Govt notification, appointing Sub-Regrs as Dy Coll under the said Section.

17) The case is resubmitted, as no orders have been passed in the matter. The same representation appears in the list of Subjects for this years D.R Assembly.

18) It is desirable to issue some ~~ord~~ as this question is going to be discussed in this year's Dussera Assembly also it is desirable to issue some orders before then. There seems to be no objn to empower Sub Registrars in this particular matter as is done in Madras.
